Q1 Read the following passage and answer the following questions-

A picnic by the River

The animals of Treefally Jungle had decided to go on a picnic. "I love a picnic. Are we really going to have a picnic?" asked Chicko, the baby monkey. All the animals scampered off in great excitement to make things for the next day.

Up in their tree house, the monkeys were busy making banana sandwiches. Not far away, behind a bush the leopard was making fig biscuits.

Sharp at half past one, Nelly the elephant, appeared in the clearing with a bag full of goodies. Soon after, all the others arrived with the things they had brought for the picnic.

All the animals followed Nelly along the path that led to the river. Every now and then they stopped and picked some berries from the bushes to have with their tea. At last they came to the river and found a nice shady spot to lay down all the tea things.
