

Instructions:

- Attempt all the questions.
- Write complete statement of fill in the blanks / match the following / true or false.

Q.1 Answer any five questions : (5×2=10)

- What is a Computer?
- What is a wallpaper?
- What is the use of the Show Grid option of the View menu?
- What are input devices?
- What is a file?
- Write a short note on the characteristics of computers.
- What is the purpose of the Copy command?

Q.2 Match the following: (5×1=5)

- | | |
|-----------------------|--|
| a) Flip | Mouse |
| b) Father of computer | Magnify the drawing |
| c) Skew | Change to its mirror image |
| d) Pointing device | Change the angle of the selected picture |
| e) Zoom | Charles Babbage |

Q.3 State True/False : (5×1=5)

- Napier's Bones was the first calculating device.
- Joystick is a pointing device.
- The background of the desktop is called screensaver.
- Computers cannot store data and instructions.
- Output produced on VDU is called soft copy.

Q.4 Fill in the blanks: (5×1=5)

- _____ is an output device used to print output on paper.
- Abacus was invented in _____.
- VDU stands for _____.
- The icon for a folder looks like a _____.
- _____ is a pointing device used for playing games.

Q.5 Answer the following questions in a word : (5×1=5)

- What is Soft Copy?
- What is data?
- Name two output devices.
- Name the first calculating device?
- What is the purpose of the Flip/Rotate command?

PRACTICAL ASSIGNMENT

(20)

