

FA-IV worksheet 2013-14

class - IV

subject - eNgLiSh

I. Read the text and answer the questions that follow.

Heidi was awakened next mornings by a shrill whistle. As she opened her eyes, a beam of sunlight came throught the hole in the wall, making the hay shine like gold. At first, she could not think where she was, them she heard her grandfather's deep voice outside and remembered joyfully that she had come to live in the mountains. She had been glad to leave old Ursula, who was very deaf and felt the cold so much that she sat all day by the kitchen fire or the living room stove. Heidi had to stay indoors where the old woman could see her, though she often longed to run outside and play. Now, she jumped out of bed, full of excitement at all the new experiences awaiting her. She dressed herself as quickly as possible, them climbed down the ladder and hurried outside. Peter was waiting there with his herd and her grandfather was just bringing Daisy and Dusky. She went to say good morning to them all.

II. Read the poem and answer the questions that follow :

May there always be tigers.
In the jungles and tall grass
May the tiger's roar be heard,
May his thunder
Be known in the land.
At the forest pool, by moonlight
May he drink and raise his head
Scenting the light wind.
May he crouch low in th grass
When the herdsmen pass,
And slumber in dark caverns
When the sun is high.
May there always be tigers.
But not so many, that one of them
Might be tempted to come into my room
In search of a meal !
