INTERNATIONAL INDIAN SCHOOL, JEDDAH

Class: VI [GS]WORKSHEET:Ls...5WILD DUCK

Choose the correct answer/fill in the blanks/true or false:

| 1. The father and the boy had |                       | resting across their knees.     |
|-------------------------------|-----------------------|---------------------------------|
|                               | (b) guns              |                                 |
| 2. They come in clo           | ouds, huge clouds. He | ere "they" refers to            |
| (a) sheep                     | (b) cattle            | (c) ducks                       |
| 3. You have to ima            | gine the              | path.                           |
| (a) curved                    | (b) round             | (c) flight                      |
| 4. A ribbon of                | dots r                | ose up fast out of the horizon. |
|                               | (b) yellow            |                                 |
| 5                             |                       |                                 |
| (a) reading books             | (b) watching T.V      | (c) watching birds              |
| 6. Half the sky was           | covered by            |                                 |
| (a) tale                      | (b) tail              | (c) teal                        |
| 7. The                        | _ shook the boat.     |                                 |
| (a) water                     | (b) thunder           | (c) explosions                  |
| 8. His son raised hi          | s rifle.              |                                 |
| (a) eagerly (b) hur           | riedly (c)slow        | ly                              |
| 9. The boy shot the           |                       |                                 |
| (a) companio                  | n (b) leader          | (c)insect                       |
|                               | swiftly t             |                                 |
| (a) animal (b                 | ) pigeon (c)          | ) teal                          |
| 11. It fell just behir        | nd the                |                                 |
| (a) bulrushes (b) la          | ke (c) vo             | lcano                           |
| 12. There was a               | float(b)lump      | ing on the water.               |
| (a) ice                       | (b)lump               | (c) brick                       |
|                               |                       | paddle through the Created      |
| (a) trembled                  | hlack (h) waying      | red (c) clanned green           |

| 14. The boy was        |                           |                                       |
|------------------------|---------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| (a) happy (b) sad      | (c) cheerful              |                                       |
| 15 its so              | oft feathers and its      | bony neck, the boy looked frightened. |
|                        | (b) touching, thin        |                                       |
| 16. The duck its       | head.                     |                                       |
| (a) pulled up          | (b) shook up              | (c) lifted up                         |
| 17. Present tense of   | f "stroke" is             | _                                     |
| 18. He breathed in _   |                           |                                       |
| 19. The boy            | the wing and              | to feed the maimed duck.              |
| (a) washed / lea       | arned (b) bandag          | ged / forgot (c) bandaged / learned   |
| 20. He spent hours     | watching it a             | bout the backyard.h                   |
| 21. He was filled wi   | th a                      | (c) sense of peace                    |
| (a) sense of joy       | (b) sense of sorrow       | (c) sense of peace                    |
| 22. Small group bro    | ke away-diving then risin | ng in formations.                     |
| 23. A flurry ofbird of | alls means                |                                       |
| 24. The speck pl       | _ eted.                   |                                       |
| 25. The sky was fille  | d with of bi              | rds.                                  |
| (a) masses             | (b) mosses                | (c) mass                              |
| 26. The of a           | formation was flying tov  | wards them.                           |
| 27. The man pointed    | d at a                    | hill.                                 |
| 28. The                | of a formation was        | s shot by the boy.                    |
| 29. The man pointed    | d at a                    | hill.                                 |
| 30. The past tense of  | of " shake" is            |                                       |

