

CHENNAI PUBLIC SCHOOL

◆ Anna Nagar ◆ Chennai -600 101

WEEKEND WORKSHEET

ENGLISH

Class ▶

V

Section ▶

Date ▶

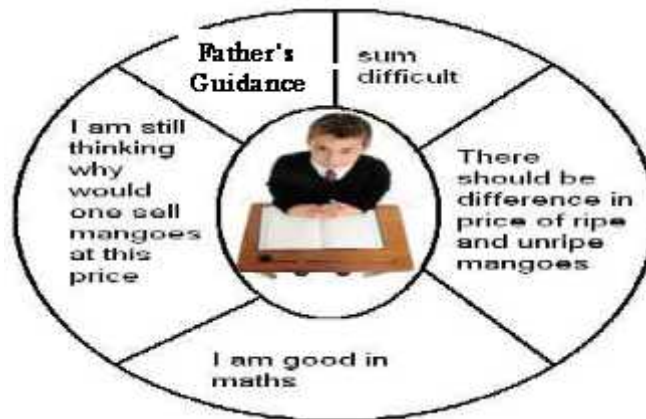

08-08-14

Name ▶

Roll No. ▶

I. Diary writing

Imagine your father is teaching you Maths. Write your experience in the form of a diary (only for one day). You may use the hints given below

Date: _____

Time: _____

Dear Diary,

II(Change the predicate to make a new sentence. The first one has been done for you.

1. Twelve students signed up for the student council election.

Ans. Twelve students were absent from my class today!

2. The funny story made us laugh.

3. The brightly colored kites drifted lazily across the sky.

4. My little brother and sister spent the whole day at the amusement park.

III. Finite and Non- Finite

a. Underline the finite and circle the non- finite verbs in these sentences.

1. She wanted to go for the party.

2. It is not advisable to eat junk food.

3. Both of them decided to get good marks in exam.

IV. Complete these sentences with the infinitive, gerund or participle forms of the verbs in the box.

write, jump, dry, break, blow, stand

1. The old beggar was _____ at the gate.

2. I was shocked to see the _____ cup.

3. The police man forgot _____ his whistle.

4. _____ poems is my hobby.

5. The cat was trying _____ across the fence.

6. Mother needed some _____ fruits.

V (a) Write the comparative form of these adjectives.

1. much _____ lucky _____

2. hardest _____ holiest _____

3. heaviest _____ comfortable _____

(b) Fill in the blanks with a correct degree of comparison.

1. This chair is _____ comfortable. (quite)
2. Seeing his new girl, he was the _____ man in this world. (happy)
3. This is the _____ book I have ever read.(interest)
4. This is the _____ of all the classes in the school.(quiet)