I. Read the following passage and answer the questions:

Once a crow and a deer were close friends. The crow had his nest on the branch of a tree. The deer's home was near a meadow. One day a fox saw the deer, standing alone near the tree. His mouth watered. He said to himself, "How delightful it would be if I could get this deer for my meal!". He thought of a tricky plan. He went to the deer and said, "Brother deer ; I am living alone in the jungle. Let me be your friend . All my people are dead and I am left alone in this world". The deer felt sorry for the fox. He was foolish enough to believe this and said " I am sorry to hear this. From today we are friends".

1. Who were close friends?

2. Where did the crow have his nest?

3. Where was the deer's home?
