

INTERNATIONAL INDIAN SCHOOL, RIYADH
SA2 WORKSHEET - 2, 2014 - 2015
CLASS - V, SUBJECT - SCIENCE

Lesson – 9 Rock and Minerals

1. Fill in the blanks

- i. The hot liquid rock, that lies below the earth's crust is known as _____.
- ii. The magma that reaches the earth's crust and flow out is called _____.
- iii. The Red Fort is made up of red _____.
- iv. _____ is made up of clay and mud particles.
- v. _____ is the hardest substance in the world.
- vi. _____ is used for dry - cleaning of woolen clothes.
- vii. Coal is obtained from underground _____.
- viii. _____ are the remains of plants and animals under the earth.
- ix. Gneiss is formed by the metamorphosis of _____.
- x. Quartzite is formed from _____.
- xi. Taj Mahal is made up of white _____.

2. Name the following

- i. Two rock forming minerals a) _____ b) _____
- ii. Two petroleum products a) _____ b) _____
- iii. Two types of igneous rocks a) _____ b) _____
- iv. Two metamorphic rocks a) _____ b) _____

v. Two sedimentary rocks a) _____ b) _____

3. Write True or False

- | | |
|--|----------|
| i. Petroleum is used as a fuel. | [] |
| ii. Marble is a sedimentary rock. | [] |
| iii. Sedimentary rocks are formed of many layers. | [] |
| iv. Conglomerate is an igneous rock. | [] |
| v. Minerals are mostly found in rocks as crystals. | [] |