

NAME: _____

CLASS – V

ROLL NO: _____

A. Multiple Choice Questions.

1. The leaders who preferred a soft persuasive approach towards the British were known as
a. extremists b. revolutionaries c. moderates d. swadeshies
2. Who is not a social reformer?
a. Bhagat Singh b. Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar c. Raja Rammohan Roy d. Syed Ahmed Khan
3. The British wanted to divide India on the basis of
a. political governance b. religion c. physical area d. population
4. The rise of Swadeshi movement saw the people
a. burn Bengali goods b. burn Indian-made goods c. burn British-made goods d. none of these
5. The revolutionaries protested against the British by resorting to
a. peaceful marches b. disobedience of British rules c. violent methods d. non-violent methods

B. Give one word for.

1. Related to society and to people's lives : _____
2. Someone who wants to change and improve something : _____
3. Love of and pride in one's own country : _____
4. Strong feeling of love, respect and loyalty towards one's country : _____
5. Self-rule for the Indians : _____

C. Match the column.

- | | |
|--|---------|
| 1. Indian National Congress | a. 1857 |
| 2. Division of Bengal | b. 1914 |
| 3. The first Revolt of Indian Independence | c. 1915 |
| 4. World War I | d. 1905 |
| 5. Gandhi's return to India | e. 1885 |

D. Fill in the blanks:-

- 1) Initially, the Indian National Congress demanded _____ for Indians under the British rule.
- 2) Many Congressmen did not like the soft approach of the leaders and wanted _____ for Indians.
- 3) The British tried to divide Bengal on the basis of religion, to weaken the feeling of _____ among Indians.
- 4) The first session of the Indian National Congress was held in _____
- 5) World War I broke out in _____

E. Write T for true and F for false sentences.

- 1) Raja Ram Mohan Roy, Dayanand Saraswati and Syed Ahmed Khan were social reformers. _____
- 2) The Indian National Congress did not fight for freedom of the country. _____
- 3) The extremists wanted self rule for the Indians. _____
- 4) Lala Lajpat Rai started a newspaper called Kesari. _____
- 5) Indians who used violent methods to gain freedom were called revolutionaries. _____