

ASSIGNMENT-1

CLASS VII

Sub- English

1. Read the following poem carefully:

The Root Of All Evils

Money is the root of all evil
And greed of money; makes man a devil.
Man loves money
Like a bee loves honey
Today man wants to accumulate more wealth
Without caring even a bit about health.
Money leads to many crimes
Now for man, hoarding money is prime.
I feel, in life the biggest thing is satisfaction
Money doesn't make a difference even by a fraction.
