

CLASS VII [GS]*WORKSHEET—Ls. 2*MAKING THINGS SIMPLE*Choose the correct answer/fill in the blanks/true or false:

1. Gerald Durrell in 'Making Things Simple' came across many -----encounters.
[a] uninteresting                      [b] boring                      [c] interesting
2. The retired surgeon made simple things-----
[a] easy                      [b] difficult                      [c] simpler
3. One day Gerald noticed that one of his foxes had trouble -----
[a] in his leg                      [b] in his head                      [c] in its tail
4. Medicating the fox was -----
[a] a pleasant experience                      [b] a tedious experience                      [c] comfortable
5. The fox ran -----round the outer perimeter of the cage.
[a] slowly                      [b] hurriedly                      [c] haste
6. Billy apologized to Gerald Durrell as he was----- [a] feeling too bad                      [b] feeling guilty and sorry                      [c] feeling bad and guilty.
7. The fox was caught across his -----by the metal rim.
[a] hind legs                      [b] fore legs                      [c] both hind and fore legs
8. The captain was a qualified -----
[a] a veterinary surgeon                      [b] surgeon                      [c] doctor
9. 'On examination I found that the break was a beautiful clean one' who is I referred here?-----
[a] Billy                      [b] Gerald Durrell                      [c] Captain
10. Plaster of Paris is a -----powder.
[a] mixture of dry wet                      [b] mixture of wet                      [c] quick drying mixture of white
11. Acquisition of knowledge means -----
12. The captain was exasperated by such a question means he was -----
[a] happy                      [b] angry                      [c] Annoyed
13. Gerald Durrell had ----- pairs of Artic foxes.
[a] two                      [b] four                      [c] three
14. The simple present of the word 'deployed' is -----

15. The office looked as though it had a -----

16. In a cloud of Plaster of Paris the ----- unravelled sixteen feet of bandages.

[a] Durrell

[b] Laura

[c] Captain

17. Several inches of bandage was wound to his -----

[a] fore finger

[b] middle finger

[c] thumb

18. Add a prefix to the word 'read' and change the meaning 'not read properly'-----

19. Captain's office at the end looked like -----

[a] I.C.U

[b] operation theatre

[c] casualty station

20. According to Mr. Durrell the splinting was the most ----- piece

[a] professional

[b] unprofessional

[c] best

21. Inextricable means ----- to do.

[a] possible

[b] quite possible

[c] impossible

22. Non messy and fool proof means -----

[a] clean and reliable

[b] unclean and unreliable

[c] Unclean and reliable

23. Things started getting difficult and confused because the instructions were -----

[a] misread

[b] partly read

[c] not written properly

24'. The fox had more or less accepted the fate ' ,here' more or less' means-----

[a] more

[b] almost

[c] mostly

25. In 'old days' means -----

[a] ancient times

[b] centuries ago

[c] in the past

26. Write three words ending with proof -----

27. At the end of the lesson the captain was ----- with his job.

[a] satisfied

[b] unsatisfied

[c] sad

28. 'Take it to daddy and he'll set it ' .who said this -----

[a] Billy

[b] Laura

[c] Gladys

29. 'Billy, Laura ,Gladys get hold of this bandage' who shouted this?-----

[a] Mrs .Beale

[b] The captain

[c] Billy

30. 'Don't shout, William. You are frightening the fox.' who said this?-----

[a] Mrs Beale

[b] Laura

[c] Durrell