Read the poem and answer the questions that follow:

I will arise and go now, and go to Innisfree,
And a small cabin build here, of clay and wattles made,
Nine bean-rows will I have there, a hive for the honey-bee,
And live alone in the bee-loud glade.

And I shall have some peace there, for peace comes dropping slow,
Dropping from the veils of the morning to where the cricket sings.
There midnight's all a glimmer, and noon a purple glow,
And evening full of the linnet's wings.

I will arise and go now, for always night and day,
I hear lake water lapping with low sounds by the shore:
While I stand on the roadway, or on the pavements grey,
I hear it in the deep heart's core.

___ W. B. Yeats

Complete the following summary by filling in the blanks:

The poem is about a dream image of a house that the poet wants to build on an island named _____. Poet is perhaps tired of his hectic life and wants a peaceful life. He says that he will go to Innisfree and build _____ and twigs. He says that he will plant _____ for honeybee. He will live alone only with the voice of the bee. There he will enjoy the peace, peace will itself come as there will be only natural things and only voice of nature. He will hear voice of _____ in the morning. There midnight will be glowing, noon would have a purple glow and in evening he would listen sound of linnet (a very small bird) wings. He says that he would go there as _____ the sound of lake water. When he stands on the roadway or pavements made of concrete he hears these sounds deep in his heart.
