Bal Bharati Public School GRH Marg  Summative Assessment 1  Assignment no. 3  Class VII  Subject: History  CH-6 'Towns, Traders and Craft persons'

Q1Fill in the blanks : -
a) Water was supplied to the city of Thanjavur through $\qquad$ and $\qquad$ _.
b) $\qquad$ river flowed through Thanjavur.
c) The weavers of Thanjavur produced $\qquad$ .
d) The three types of medieval towns were $\qquad$ and $\qquad$ .
e) $\qquad$ and $\qquad$ were the two famous guilds in South- India.
f) $\qquad$ was one of the most important festivals celebrated at Hampi.
g) $\qquad$ was the most important port on Andhra Coast and $\qquad$ tried to control it.
h) The $\qquad$ , $\qquad$ and the $\qquad$ formed East India companies to expand their commercial activites in the east.
i) Hampi was te capital of the $\qquad$ empire.
j) Ajmer is associated with the Sufi saint $\qquad$ .

Q2 Give short answers -
a) Who was a Samanta and what did he do?
b) Who lived in the 'Black Towns' in cities such as Madras?
c) Why did English and Dutch decide to establish settlement in Masulipatnam?
d) Why was Surat called the gateway to the Mecca?

Q4) Long answers: -
a) Describe the architecture of Hampi?
b) Describe the towns that emerged from large villages from 8th century onwards.
c) Name a few temple towns. Why did towns grow around temples?
d) Why did Surat decline towards the end of 17 th century?
e) Why did people from distant lands visit Surat?

Downloaded from www.studiestoday.com

