

Comprehension

Ques.1) Read the following passage and answer the given questions:

New Delhi: it's about the style. and India's most innovative President, APJ Abdul kalaam, certainly has his own. Children visiting kalaam at the Rashtrapati bhawan are greeted with a 'for them only' visiting card, called the 'knowledge card'. The president signs each card and hands it over himself," says sources at the Rashtrapati bhawan.

The size of an average visiting card, the knowledge card carries the president's name, photograph, the national emblem, his website address and a four line message: learning gives creativity, creativity leads to thinking, thinking provides knowledge, and knowledge makes you great.

Often, kalam asks the children to read the lines aloud. In his 10-month tenure, kalaam has interacted with over one lakh children. and he does not stop at preaching. The first citizen met a group of 12 thalassemic on world thalassemia day in his study. sitting down at his computer, he downloaded the latest information on stem cell research, promised to forward them more updates on the subject, and encouraged the children not to lose hope as research was bound to yield positive results.

1) List two qualities of president APJ Abdul kalaam.

2) How were the children welcomed at rashtrapati bhawan, when they visited the president?

3) List four things that the special visiting card carry.

4) What was the message written on the card?

5) How did the president kalam motivated the thalassemic children?
