

INTERNATIONAL INDIAN SCHOOL JEDDAH
WORKSHEET
CHP:1 CROP PRODUCTION AND MANAGEMENT

Class – VIII

Sub – science

I. Fill in the Blanks .

1. The branch of science that deals with the rearing of animals, providing proper food, shelter and care is called _____.
2. Dried neem leaves are used for storing _____ at home.
3. Pangal, Holi, Diwali, Onam etc are called _____.
4. The process of separation of grains from chaff is called _____.
5. Manures provide _____ to the soil.
6. The undesirable and unwanted plants growing along the crops are called _____.
7. The process of giving water to the plants at regular intervals is called _____.
8. Some examples of fertilizers are _____, _____, _____.
9. An appropriate distance between the seeds is important to avoid _____ of the plants.
10. The process of loosening and turning of soil is called _____.

II. Answer in a word or sentence.

1. Define crop.

2. What do you mean by kharif and rabi crops ?

3. Name few agricultural implements .

4. What are manures and fertilizers ?

5. What are the different sources of irrigation ?

III. Answer the following questions.

1. What are advantages of ploughing the field ?

2. Differentiate between manures and fertilizers ?

3. What are the modern methods of irrigation ? Describe them .

4. What are weedicides ? Which is the best time for the spraying of weedicides ?
What care should be taken while spraying weedicides?

5. What are the advantages of manures ?