

Q1. There is a land-fill on the out-skirt of the city area The area has become unfit for human habitation due to foul smell and increase in mosquito population.--- Prepare an action plan about how you shall work to minimize the harmful effect on environment. This comes under the topic - 'Solid waste and its management.'

Some of the important clues are given to help you. Take the help of news paper, magazine and information available on net to write a comprehensive report on the topic. Students! these are burning issues of the day. It is a must to know the environment in which we are living. Aware of what is happening around. Take care to protect your mother nature.

(A-4 size paper. Hand written 1000 words. It will be evaluated for FA-II)

*Where does all the waste we generate in the house go?
What happens to it and how does it affect our lives?
Learn all about this as you read on.*

What is solid waste?

Types of solid waste

Plastics

Managing solid wastes

Segregation

Recycling and reuse

Treatment and disposal of municipal waste

Composting

What you can do to reduce solid waste

Health impacts of solid waste

Surat - a success story

2. From the nearest medical store, collect the following information.
- Maximum selling medicines for communicable diseases. (Any 5)
 - Name the disease the medicine is meant for.
 - What is the cause of the disease?
 - How to prevent this disease?
 - How can you identify a healthy person?

3. See the given picture and write different ways of saving energy in your school campus. (Collect 15 points from the picture)

