

Name: Half-yearly Portion

Subject: Social Science

Class: VIII

Section: A

Date:

1. The cluster of trees which grow close to each other are called ____ [1]
 - a. Grasslands
 - b. Forests
 - c. Shrubs
 - d. None of the above
2. Cultivating _____ was a labour-intensive job. [1]
 - a. indigo
 - b. cotton
 - c. jute
 - d. rice
3. This system of our Constitution prevents the misuse of power vested in the government. [1]
 - a. Fundamental Rights
 - b. Federalism
 - c. Checks and balances
 - d. Socialism
4. What is the role of CITES in saving the flora and fauna? [3]
5. Which were the four agencies that carried out the day-to-day administration in the British India? [3]
6. Write any four functions performs by the Parliament. [3]
7. Classify forests and explain each briefly. [4]
8. Identify and name the following marked on the map. [4]
 - a. Type of Vegetation :
 1. _____
 2. _____
 3. _____
 4. _____

